

SHOOTING SPORTS

Improperly handled firearms and bows are dangerous. Shooting sports education reduces firearms accidents and probably firearms crimes as well.

Circle all the incorrect answers about 4-H shooting sports:

1. 4-H shooting sports has lessons on how to shoot a bow and arrow with emphasis on safety.
2. 4-H shooting sports offer opportunities to compete.
3. 4-H shooting sports does not prepare you to pass the hunting safety exam required before you can obtain a hunting license.
4. The serious 4-H student aims at becoming a skillful, safe, mature person with a deep respect and appreciation for environment, natural resources and their management, and firearms.
5. A 4-H student might start with a beginning project and then become proficient in hunting, wildlife management knowledge, camping, and survival skills.
6. 4-H shooting sports has lessons on how to make arrows and bows.
7. 4-H shooting sports does not teach about hunter-landowner relations.
8. 4-H shooting sports has lessons on muzzle loading and equipment.
9. 4-H shooting sports teaches about the firearms history of the hand cannon, and about the matchlock, wheel lock, flintlock, and percussion actions.
10. 4-H shooting sports has lessons on shotgun shooting fundamentals.
11. 4-H shooting sports helps youth understand wildlife conservation and management.
12. 4-H shooting sports does not teach techniques for hunting.
13. 4-H shooting sports has lessons on pistols.
14. 4-H shooting sports has lessons on rifle safety.
15. 4-H shooting sports does not teach respect for self and wildlife or the importance of ethics.
16. Shooting sports strongly emphasizes gun safety because carelessness is the cause of most hunting accidents.

Incorrect Answers: 3, 7, 12, 15

